UD STUDENTS JOIN MIAMI VALLEY SYMPHONY IN ITS OPENING CONCERT OF THE SEASON

DAYTON, Ohio -- University of Dayton students will perform this year for the first time with the Miami Valley Symphony. The symphony will present its opening concert of the 1992-1993 season at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 7, in the West Carrollton Senior High School auditorium, 5833 Student St.

There will be an admission charge of $6 for adults, $5 for senior citizens and $4 for students. Tickets may be purchased at the door or reserved by calling 294-5808.

The symphony will perform three major works, including the "Egmont Overture" by Beethoven, Mozart's "Third Horn Concerto" and the "Symphony in D Minor" by Franck.

Charles Wendelken-Wilson is the conductor of the Miami Valley Symphony, a community orchestra in its fourth season. Wendelken-Wilson was awarded an honorary doctorate from UD in 1981 and joined the adjunct music faculty this year. He served as music director and conductor of the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra from 1975 to 1987.
